Roscoe R. Conklin, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Conklin:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a sufficient post-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election.

On July 1, 2005, the secretary notified the Benton County Republican Central Committee (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file a sufficient report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 221), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on November 22, 2002. The statement reported Roscoe R. Conklin as the treasurer and 277 NE Conifer Blvd #128, Corvallis, OR 97330 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee filed a post-election report with the secretary on June 8, 2004.
3. On July 2, 2004, the secretary sent the committee an exam letter that itemized the areas where the report was not in compliance. The committee was asked to submit the necessary amended information by July 15, 2004, to avoid penalties for failure to file a sufficient report.

4. On the day following the July 15, 2004, amendment deadline, the committee's report was still missing the following required information: dates within the accounting period for five contributions and occupational information for one contributor (6 items).
5. On July 29, 2004, an amendment to the committee's report was filed. The amendment provided six items of previously insufficient information.
6. On July 1, 2005, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $30.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by Roscoe R. Conklin on July 2, 2005.
7. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
8. The secretary has record of no previous insufficient filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Roscoe R. Conklin, Treasurer, failed to file a sufficient post-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Treasurer Roscoe R. Conklin's failure to file a sufficient post-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election violated ORS 260.063, ORS 260.083 and OAR 165-012-0005. A civil penalty may be imposed for this violation under ORS 260.232(1)(b).

A maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 104 and 105, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Since this is the first violation by the treasurer, the penalty is $10.00 per omission, less 50% for every omitted item provided prior to the issuance of the proposed penalty notice.

ORDER

Payment of the proposed civil penalty of $30.00 was received in the office of the Secretary of State on July 8, 2005. This Order will serve as your receipt and this matter is now considered closed.
