Tristan Reisfar, Candidate/Treasurer

Dear Mr. Reisfar:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a sufficient first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2005, General Election.

On July 28, 2005, the secretary notified Reisfar for 54 (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file a sufficient report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 220), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on June 7, 2004. The statement reported Tristan Reisfar, the candidate, as the treasurer and 1251 NW Baltimore Ave, Bend, OR 97701 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee filed a first pre-election report with the secretary on September 27, 2004.
3. On October 12, 2004, the secretary sent the committee an exam letter that itemized the areas where the report was not in compliance. The committee was asked to submit the necessary amended information by October 21, 2004, to avoid penalties for failure to file a sufficient report.

4. On the day following the October 21, 2004, amendment deadline, the committee's report was still missing the following required information: the date of one contribution, the names of the payee for four expenditures and a sufficient purpose of one expenditure (6 items).
5. On July 28, 2005, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the candidate/treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $60.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by Tina Reisfar on August 1, 2005.
6. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
7. The secretary has record of no previous insufficient filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Tristan Reisfar, Candidate/Treasurer, failed to file a sufficient first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2005, General Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Candidate/Treasurer Tristan Reisfar's failure to file a sufficient first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2005, General Election violated ORS 260.068, ORS 260.083 and OAR 165-012-0005. A civil penalty may be imposed for this violation under ORS 260.232(1)(b).

A maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 104 and 105, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Since this is the first violation by the candidate, the penalty is $10.00 per omission.

It is ordered that a penalty of $60.00 ($10.00 X 6 items) is assessed. If your payment is not received within 60 days, the Order will be forwarded to our accounting division for collection and may subsequently be sent to the Oregon Department of Revenue.
