Jim Buck, Candidate / Lynne M. Hill, Treasurer
PO Box 1071

Dear Mr. Buck:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a sufficient post-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

On December 15, 2005, the secretary notified Friends of Jim Buck (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file a sufficient report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 220), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on March 9, 2004. The statement reported Lynne M. Hill as the treasurer and PO Box 1071, Gresham, OR 97030 as the mailing address for both candidate and committee correspondence.
2. The committee filed a post-election report with the secretary on November 30, 2004.
3. On December 17, 2004, the secretary sent the committee an exam letter that itemized the areas where the report was not in compliance. The committee was asked to submit the necessary amended information by December 30, 2004, to avoid penalties for failure to file a sufficient report.

4. On the day following the December 30, 2004, amendment deadline, the committee's report was still missing the following required information: the sufficient dates for two contributions and the name of the payee for one expenditure (3 items).
5. On January 3, 2005, an amendment to the committee's report was filed. The amendment provided three items of previously insufficient information.
6. On December 15, 2005, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the candidate and was sent by first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $15.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by James Buck on December 21, 2005.
7. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
8. The secretary has record of no previous insufficient filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Jim Buck, Candidate, and Lynne M. Hill, Treasurer, failed to file a sufficient post-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Candidate Jim Buck's and Treasurer Lynne M. Hill's failure to file a sufficient post-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election violated ORS 260.068, ORS 260.083 and OAR 165-012-0005. A civil penalty may be imposed for this violation under ORS 260.232(1)(b).

A maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 104 and 105, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Since this is the first violation by the candidate, the penalty is $10.00 per omission, less 50% for every omitted item provided prior to the issuance of the proposed penalty notice.

ORDER

It is ordered that no penalty be assessed because the appropriate penalty is under $50.
