Dear Ms. White:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a timely first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election.

On June 10, 2004, the secretary notified NAIOPAC (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file the report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 221), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on December 3, 2002. The statement reported Robin White as the treasurer and 1211 SW 5th Ave #L-17, Portland, OR 97204 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee was required to file a first pre-election report with the secretary on April 12, 2004.
3. The secretary sent the committee a notice that it had failed to file a timely report on April 13, 2004. The notice was sent by first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address.

4. The secretary received the report on April 20, 2004, which is six business days after the date on which the report was due.
5. The committee reported total contributions of $2,000.00 and total expenditures of $300.00 during the accounting period for the report.
6. On June 10, 2004, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $100.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by C. Seavy on June 15, 2004.
7. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
8. The secretary has record of no previous late filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Robin White, Treasurer, failed to file a timely first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Treasurer Robin White's failure to file a timely first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election violated ORS 260.063.

By statute, a maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 101 and 102, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Under the penalty matrix, the maximum statutory penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 1% of the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—for each business day the report was late as this is the first late violation by the treasurer.

Although the calculated penalty for the late report is $120.00 ( $$2,000.00 \times 1\% \times 6 \text{ days}$ ), the penalty matrix sets a maximum penalty of $100.00 when the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—is between $0 and $2,000.

It is ordered that a penalty of $100.00 is assessed. If your payment is not received within 60 days from the date of service noted below, this Order will be sent to our accounting division for collection and may be subsequently sent to the Oregon Department of Revenue.
