Dear Mr. Penicook:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a timely second supplement of the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election.

On August 19, 2004, the secretary notified the Committee to Elect Penicook (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file the report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 220), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on March 19, 2004. The mailing address provided on the Statement of Organization for the candidate was 7132 Gardena Pl, Klamath Falls, OR 97603. The statement reported Mark Runnels as the treasurer and 7132 Gardena Pl, Klamath Falls, OR 97603 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee was required to file a second supplement of the second pre-election report with the secretary on May 14, 2004.
3. The secretary received the report on May 17, 2004, which is one business day after the date on which the report was due.

4. The committee reported no contributions and total expenditures of $2,907.36 during the accounting period for the report.
5. On August 19, 2004, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the candidate and was sent by first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced addresses. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $87.22 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by David Penicook on August 21, 2004.
6. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
7. The secretary has record of one previous late filing during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

David Penicook, Candidate, and Mark Runnels, Treasurer, failed to file a timely second supplement of the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Candidate David Penicook's and Treasurer Mark Runnels's failure to file a timely second supplement of the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the May 18, 2004, Primary Election violated ORS 260.058.

By statute, a maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 101 and 102, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Under the penalty matrix, the maximum statutory penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 3% of the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—for each business day the report was late as this is the second late violation by the candidate.
