Rayne L. Meacham, Treasurer

Dear Ms. Meacham:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a timely first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

On March 16, 2005, the secretary notified the Truth in Education PAC (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file the report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 221), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on March 12, 2003. The statement reported Rayne L. Meacham as the treasurer and 231 N Garden Wy, Eugene, OR 97401 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee was required to file a first pre-election report with the secretary on September 27, 2004.
3. The secretary sent the committee a notice that it had failed to file a timely report on September 28, 2004. The notice was sent by first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address.

4. The secretary received the report on October 28, 2004, which is 23 business days after the date on which the report was due.
5. The committee reported no contributions and total expenditures of $680.96 during the accounting period for the report.
6. On March 16, 2005, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $100.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by Sue Buck on January 31, 2005.
7. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
8. The secretary has record of three previous late filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Rayne L. Meacham, Treasurer, failed to file a timely first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Treasurer Rayne L. Meacham's failure to file a timely first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election violated ORS 260.073.

By statute, a maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 101 and 102, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Under the penalty matrix, the maximum statutory penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 5% of the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—for each business day the report was late as this is the fourth late violation by the treasurer.

Although the calculated penalty for the late report is $783.15 ($$680.96 \times 5\% \times 23$ days), the penalty matrix sets a maximum penalty of $100.00 when the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—is between $0 and $2,000.
