TESTIMONY:

I am sending this information as an explanation for the day late filing of my campaign report. I had prepared the report, along with corrections for the previous report. I placed the 11 pages on my fax machine, dialed and sent the report. The next morning I went to gather the pages and mail them, which I did, and saw that 5 or 6 pages were still in the send portion of the fax machine, and the other 5 or 6 pages were in the sent tray. I grabbed a cover page, wrote an oops apology, faxed all 11 pages again, and then mailed them all. I do not believe this is necessarily an approved excuse... but did want to have a response on file for those who may wish to read it.
