for the November 2, 2004, General Election) Case No. L8095

May 12, 2005

Hearpac (004420)
Wayne Brown, Treasurer
4124 NE 31st Ave
Portland, OR 97211

Dear Mr. Brown:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a timely post-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

On March 25, 2005, the secretary notified Hearpac (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file the report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 221), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on October 29, 2002. The statement reported Wayne Brown as the treasurer and 4124 NE 31st Ave, Portland, OR 97211 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee was required to file a post-election report with the secretary on December 2, 2004.
3. The secretary sent the committee a notice that it had failed to file a timely report on December 3, 2004. The notice was sent by first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address.
4. The secretary received the report on December 6, 2004, which is two business days after the date on which the report was due.

5. The committee reported no contributions or expenditures during the accounting period for the report.
6. On March 25, 2005, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $100.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by the committee on March 26, 2005.
7. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
8. The secretary has record of four previous late filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Wayne Brown, Treasurer, failed to file a timely post-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Treasurer Wayne Brown's failure to file a timely post-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election violated ORS 260.073.

By statute, a maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 101 and 102, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Under the penalty matrix, the maximum statutory penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 5% of the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—for each business day the report was late as this is the fifth late violation by the treasurer.

Although the committee reported no activity during the accounting period for the late report, the penalty matrix sets a minimum penalty of $100.00 for a candidate's or treasurer's third or subsequent late violation.

It is ordered that a penalty of $100.00 is assessed. If your payment is not received within 60 days from the date of service noted below, this Order will be sent to our accounting division for collection and may be subsequently sent to the Oregon Department of Revenue.
