Megan Sweeney, Treasurer
3536 SE 26th Ave
Portland, OR 97202

Dear Ms. Sweeney:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a timely second supplement to the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

On March 11, 2005, the secretary notified the Service Employees Political Action Committee 1 (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file the report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 221), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on May 14, 2004. The statement reported Megan Sweeney as the treasurer and 3536 SE 26th Ave, Portland, OR 97202 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee was required to file a second supplement to the second pre-election report with the secretary on October 29, 2004, because it made aggregate expenditures of more than $1,000 to a single payee between October 25 and October 28, 2004.

3. The committee reported the expenditures required to be on the second supplement to the second pre-election report ($3,000.00 and $841.67 to TGF Productions on October 26, 2004) on its post-election report filed on December 1, 2004, which is 21 business days after the second supplement to the second pre-election report was due.
4. On March 11, 2005, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $806.82 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by Jean Guzman-Brenner on March 14, 2005.
5. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
6. The secretary has record of no previous late filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Megan Sweeney, Treasurer, failed to file a timely second supplement to the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Treasurer Megan Sweeney's failure to file a timely second supplement to the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election violated ORS 260.073.

By statute, a maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 101 and 102, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Under the penalty matrix, the maximum statutory penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 1% of the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—for each business day the report was late as this is the first late violation by the treasurer.
