Max Williams, Candidate / Devin Kidman, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Williams:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a timely supplemental contribution and expenditure report for 2005.

On May 26, 2006, the secretary notified the Friends of Max Williams for State Representative (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file the report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 220), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on February 14, 2002. The mailing address provided on the Statement of Organization for the candidate was 12103 SW 135th Ave, Tigard, OR 97223. The statement reported Devin Kidman as the treasurer and 7150 SW Hampton St Ste 110, Tigard, OR 97223 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee was required to file a supplemental report with the secretary on September 12, 2005.
3. The secretary sent the committee a notice that it had failed to file a timely report on September 13, 2005. The notice was sent by first class mail to the candidate and treasurer at the above-referenced addresses.

4. The secretary received the report on September 14, 2005, which is two business days after the date on which the report was due.
5. The committee reported no contributions and total expenditures of $1,000.00 during the accounting period for the report.
6. On January 26, 2006, the secretary received an amended SEL 220, updating the committee's name to Friends of Max Williams for State Representative Committee and the mailing address for both candidate and committee correspondence to 7150 SW Hampton St #110, Portland, OR 97223.
7. On May 26, 2006, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was inadvertently sent by both certified and first class mail to the candidate at the previous candidate mailing address, and was sent by first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $60.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was returned unclaimed and the post-office gave its first notice on on May 27, 2006.
8. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
9. The secretary has record of one previous late filing during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2003.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Max Williams, Candidate, and Devin Kidman, Treasurer, failed to file a timely supplemental contribution and expenditure report for 2005.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Candidate Max Williams's and Treasurer Devin Kidman's failure to file a timely supplemental contribution and expenditure report for 2005 violated ORS 260.068.

By statute, a maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 101 and 102, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Under the penalty matrix, the maximum statutory penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 3% of the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—for each business day the report was late as this is the second late violation by the candidate.
