Dear Judge Williams:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a timely supplemental contribution and expenditure report for 2006.

On March 9, 2007, the secretary notified Williams for Judge (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file the report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 220), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on August 27, 2002. The statement reported William B. Heck as the treasurer and 489 Benton View Dr, Philomath, OR 97370 as the mailing address for both candidate and committee correspondence.
2. The committee was required to file a supplemental report with the secretary on September 11, 2006.
3. The secretary sent the committee a notice that it had failed to file a timely report on September 12, 2006. The notice was sent by first class mail to the candidate at the above referenced address and to the treasurer at 2703 SW Titleist Cir, Corvallis, OR 97333.
4. The secretary received the report on September 12, 2006, which is one business day after the date on which the report was due.

5. The committee reported no contributions or expenditures during the accounting period for the report.
6. On March 9, 2007, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the candidate and was sent by first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed no civil penalty and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by Alden Williams on March 10, 2007.
7. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
8. The secretary has record of no previous late filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2005.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Locke A. Williams, Candidate, and William B. Heck, Treasurer, failed to file a timely supplemental contribution and expenditure report for 2006.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Candidate Locke A. Williams's and Treasurer William B. Heck's failure to file a timely supplemental contribution and expenditure report for 2006 violated ORS 260.068.

By statute, a maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2006 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 104–106, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Under the penalty matrix, the maximum statutory penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 1% of the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—for each business day the report was late as this is the first late violation by the candidate.

Because the committee reported no activity during the accounting period for the late report, no civil penalty will be assessed.

ORDER

It is ordered that no penalty be assessed.

RIGHT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW

You have the right to appeal this Order to the Oregon Court of Appeals pursuant to ORS 183.482. To appeal you must file a petition for judicial review with the Court of Appeals within 60 days from the day this Order was served to you. Because this Order was mailed to you, the date of service is the day it was mailed, not the day you received it. If you do not file a petition for judicial review within the 60-day time period, you will lose your right to appeal.
