Gayle Attebury, Treasurer

Dear Ms. Attebury:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a complete second supplement to the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 7, 2006, General Election.

On May 16, 2007, the secretary notified the Oregon Right to Life PAC (committee), pursuant to ORS 260.232(2), that it had failed to file the report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after consideration of the records and files of the secretary regarding this matter, the secretary is entering the following Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 221), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with the secretary on October 23, 2006. The statement reported Gayle Attebury as the treasurer and 4335 River Road N, Salem, OR 97303 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee submitted a complete second supplement to the second pre-election report on November 3, 2006. However, additional contributions ($4,697.46, $383.00, $87.50 from Right to Life/Oregon PAC on October 31, 2006, and $77.02 from Right to Life/Oregon PAC on November 1, 2006) should have been included on the report.

3. The committee first reported the contributions required to be included on the second supplement to the second pre-election report on its post-election report filed on December 7, 2006, making this portion of the report 22 business days late.
4. On May 16, 2007, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $1,000.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by on returned unclaimed and the post office indicated it gave first notice on May 17, 2007.
5. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing.
6. The secretary has record of no previous late filings during the two-year period beginning September 15, 2005.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Gayle Attebury, Treasurer, failed to file a complete second supplement to the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 7, 2006, General Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Treasurer Gayle Attebury's failure to file a complete second supplement to the second pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 7, 2006, General Election violated ORS 260.073.

By statute, a maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2006 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on pages 104–106, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

Under the penalty matrix, the maximum statutory penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 1% of the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—for each business day the report was late as this is the first late violation by the treasurer.

Although the calculated penalty for the late report is $1,153.90 ($$5,244.98 \times 1\% \times 22$ days), the penalty matrix sets a maximum penalty of $1,000.00 when the total contributions or total expenditures—whichever is greater—is between $2,000.01 and $10,000.
