Friends of Victoria Doyle (005108)
Victoria Doyle, Candidate/Treasurer
524 Creekside Dr SE
Salem, OR 97306

Dear Ms. Doyle:

This is a Final Order by Default issued by the Secretary of State (secretary) for your failure to file a sufficient first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

On October 28, 2005, the secretary notified Friends of Victoria Doyle (committee) that it had failed to file a sufficient first pre-election contribution and expenditure report and that the secretary may impose a civil penalty. An opportunity for a hearing was provided in that notice; however, no request for a hearing was received by the secretary within the time permitted in the notice. Accordingly, after considering the agency's records and files regarding this matter, which are designated the record in this case, the secretary issues this Final Order.

FINDINGS OF FACT

1. The committee's Statement of Organization (SEL 220), applicable during the reporting period, was filed with Marion County on March 11, 2004. The statement reported Victoria Doyle, the candidate, as the treasurer and 524 Creekside Dr SE, Salem, OR 97306 as the address to which all committee correspondence was to be sent.
2. The committee filed a first pre-election report with Marion County on September 27, 2004.
3. On page 106 of the 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, it states that a new transaction is an amendment filed more than 28 calendar days after the filing deadline for the report that adds or deletes a contribution or expenditure or changes the amount of a previously reported contribution or expenditure. New transactions must be submitted by the deadline in order to avoid penalties. The deadline for filing new transactions for the first pre-election of the November 2, 2004, General Election was October 25, 2004.

4. On January 31, 2005, Marion County Elections Division filed a complaint with the secretary, alleging possible violations of Oregon's election laws. This complaint was prompted by a letter from a payee listed on one of your campaign finance reports who had not received any money from you or your campaign. This opened an investigation into the accuracy of the committee's campaign finance reports, in which bank records for the 2004 election cycle were requested. The secretary's investigation revealed that you reported three contributions totaling $2,500.00 for which there was no evidence in your bank records and which decrease the previously reported contributions and that you failed to report seven expenditures totaling $979.95 for which there was evidence in your bank records and which increase your previously reported expenditures.
5. On September 12, 2005, an amendment to the committee's report was voluntarily filed with Marion County. The secretary received a copy of this amendment on September 15, 2005. The amendment changed the dollar amount of the previously reported contributions and expenditures on the report and was filed 100 business days after the new transaction deadline.
6. On October 28, 2005, the secretary sent the committee a Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty. The notice was sent by both certified and first class mail to the candidate/treasurer at the above-referenced address. The notice proposed a civil penalty of $100.00 and allowed the committee 20 days to request a hearing. The notice sent by certified mail was received and signed for by Victoria Doyle on October 29, 2005.
7. The committee did not request a public hearing or submit notarized testimony in lieu of a public hearing. On November 18, 2005, within the time for requesting a hearing, the Elections Division received a letter from Ms. Doyle's counsel dated that same day. However, this letter did not include a request for a hearing, and in fact, stated that it was not a response to the secretary's Notice of Proposed Civil Penalty.

ULTIMATE FINDINGS OF FACT

Victoria Doyle, Candidate/Treasurer, failed to file a sufficient first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

Candidate/Treasurer Victoria Doyle's failure to file a sufficient first pre-election contribution and expenditure report for the November 2, 2004, General Election violated ORS 260.068, ORS 260.083 and OAR 165-012-0005.

A maximum $10,000 civil penalty may be imposed for this violation. The 2004 Campaign Finance Manual, which contains a penalty calculation matrix on page 100, is designated in OAR 165-012-0005 as the procedure manual for Oregon campaign finance regulations.

The maximum penalty of $10,000 is reduced to 1% of the amount of the change of each transaction multiplied by the number of business days the amendment was filed late, up to 100 days. The penalty shall not exceed a maximum penalty of $100 because the committee's activity level during the accounting period was between $0 and $2,000.

ORDER

It is ordered that a penalty of $100.00 is assessed. If your payment is not received within 60 days from the date of service noted below, this Order will be sent to our accounting division for collection and may be subsequently sent to the Oregon Department of Revenue.

Please refer to case number NT8464 when mailing your payment.

RIGHT TO JUDICIAL REVIEW

You have the right to appeal this Order to the Oregon Court of Appeals pursuant to ORS 183.482. To appeal you must file a petition for judicial review with the Court of Appeals within 60 days from the day this Order was served to you. Because this Order was mailed to you, the date of service is the day it was mailed, not the day you received it. If you do not file a petition for judicial review within the 60-day time period, you will lose your right to appeal.
